

Across

- 1. *Where you'll see the vineyards of Portugal
- 6. What you get at every port
- 10. What you shouldn't have to do with your jewelry after the trip
- 14. What the nose of rich 6 down should be
- 15. What you might need after a sunny excursion
- 16. Mine, to Pierre
- 17. What you don't want the river to do, while on board
- 18. Richard's heart was one
- 19. A young lady
- 20. "Did you see that?" she said on the deck of the Alaskan cruise
- 23. *Where you'll get to hear Mozart
- 25. What every ship has on the lower deck: abbr.

- 26. You'll see a lovely one in most every church along the 46 down
- 30. What you might need to start when you get home
- 31. Hasn't settled the on board charges
- 32. The Captain instructed the helmsman to set course this way
- 35. Le plus grand continent
- 36. One of the three Viking Cruise types and a hint to the starred clues
- 38. We hope the chef m ____ no mist ____ with the cupc ____!
- 39. Mont Blanc is one, so is Montemuro : abbr.
- 40. Notre Dame is on one in the Seine
- 41. You'll give good ones to your new friends
- 42. *Where you can channel your inner Huck Finn (starting in 2022)
- 46. On a dark night, you could see it in the Lyre in the sky
- 49. Actor Nick and his family
- 50. Where the chef pours all that EVOO
- 54. August born?
- 55. 50 across, to Chef Massimo

- 56. *Where you'll see the Marksburg Castle
- 60. Welsh destination for skinny train enthusiasts: abbr.
- 61. A cheap way to fill in words in a crossword puzzle: abbr.
- 62. What many people do with their 6 across
- 63. The Captain likes to dock with this
- 64. Needed after a full day of excursions
- 65. *One not served by Viking! At least not yet...

Down

- 1. Someone you'd rather not see on your cruise
- 2. Something you'd rather not have to use on your cruise
- 3. A Hawaiian guest might entertain you with it: abbr.
- 4. What the audio system does throughout the ship
- 5. A lovely way to say you're going cruising
- 6. Something the sommelier might recommend for you
- 7. With "Alita" how many guests begin and end their trips
- 8. An amenity found on Ocean ships, but not River ships

- 9. Do ____ a post card to your friends back home
- 10. Many Roman areas were this
- 11. Your friend from Barcelona?
- 12. You can tour this with Viking too
- 13. *Where you can't miss the Pyramids
- 21. What you'll want to work on, when you get home
- 22. Sea versions of what they saw in 20 across
- 23. Where you'll never find a Viking review
- 24. If you had room service, for example
- 26. At the end of 13 down you'll run into one called Aswan
- 27. The solo Viking traveler, he ____ around the world
- 28. Fluffy thing on a farm
- 29. When the poet would want to be on a cruise
- 32. One way to keep in touch with the folks back home
- 33. 7 or more of these is a warning on board
- 34. They, in Palermo
- 36. What you get if you type too many comments: abbr.
- 37. They, in Paris
- 38. What your wallet might be when you return home

- 40. "____ your disposal," said the cabin attendant
- 43. The safest place to get on and off the ship
- 44. The locks you'll sail through if you take the Great Lakes cruise one day
- 45. What you hope your dinner companion doesn't do with the soup
- 46. *Where you'll see onion domes
- 47. They are lovely in paintings, but I prefer modern carafes
- 48. You can pick up one for your garden at many ports
- 50. You'll definitely meet one if you stop in Skagen
- 51. You could get covered in one on a Tromso excursion
- 52. *Where you'll visit the World's Oldest Christmas Market
- 53. They often share a cabin
- 57. A wonderful chef, but she'll need to wear shoes to work in the galley
- 58. Something you definitely won't step on on a Viking cruise
- 59. Little town due east of Amsterdam

